

2016 Nevada FFA Veterinary Science CDE

Possible Practicums

Handling and Restraint:

- Using a cat bag
- Applying a cat muzzle
- Restraint of cat for jugular venipuncture
- Restraint of the cat for cephalic IV catheter placement
- Applying a commercial dog muzzle
- Removing a dog from a floor level cage or kennel
- Restraint of a small dog in lateral recumbency
- Restraint of a dog for venipuncture of the lateral saphenous vein
- Restraint of a dog for jugular venipuncture
- Restraint of rabbit
- Haltering cattle
- Tying a square knot
- Placing a tail tie

Clinical:

- Administering topical wound treatment
- Administering ophthalmic medication
- Administering an intramuscular injection
- Administering a subcutaneous injection
- Bandage removal
- Filling a syringe
- Fecal flotation with Fecalyzer
- Prepare a gram-stained slide
- Use of a microscope
- Open a gown and gloves
- Prepare a surgical pack for sterilization
- Prescription filling

We will select three from each category for students to demonstrate. Also, please remind students to talk through the practicums as this is required and they could potentially lose points if they fail to do so. Thanks!